

Centralized SMS Data Management Approach

And when these people say...

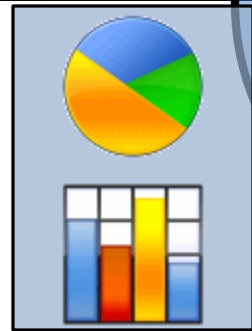

Employees submit electronic reports. They immediately receive email feedback. Link in email also allows them to determine status of reported issue. Feedback encourages participation.

Unfettered access to data and real-time reports. Able to see entire safety program and determine shortcomings.

Ability to communicate directly to entire company. Involvement demonstrates explicit commitment to safety.

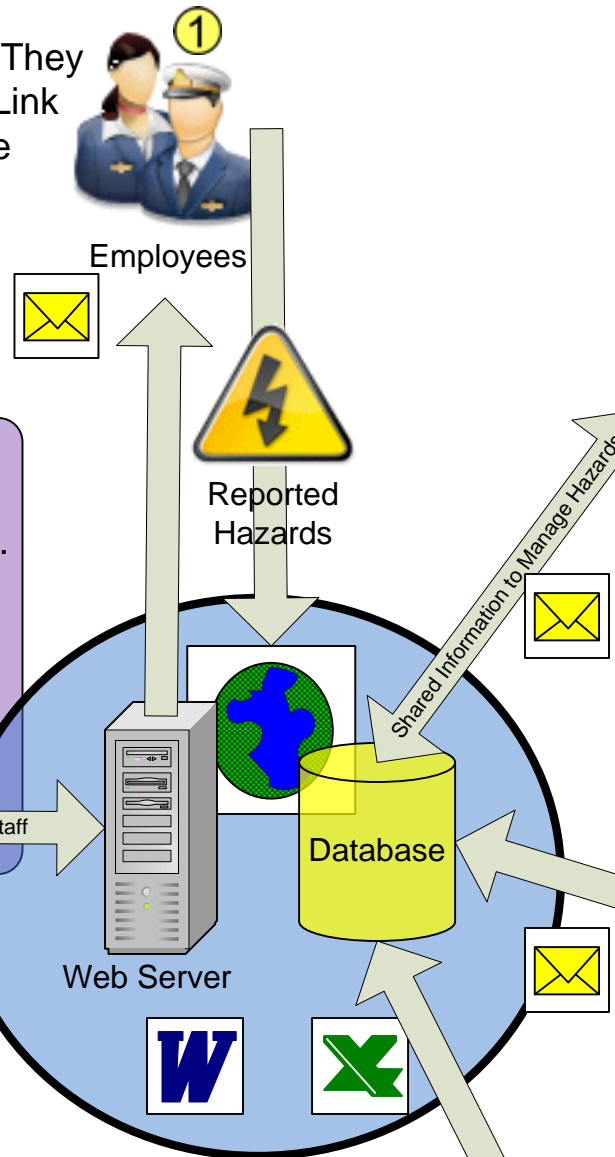

Accountable Executive

Benefits

- Saves money
- Protects assets
- Improves safety
- Improves morale
- Reduces worry
- Improved data security
- Improved communication
- Centralized SMS document storage

SM is immediately notified of reported issues. SM assesses & classifies issue, conducts investigations & assigns to responsible managers.

Safety Manager

All data, attachments & images are shared and/or put into version control. Security based on roles.

Easily investigates trends and mines data. Communicates effortlessly with entire company.

Effortlessly finds data to satisfy external auditors.

Dept Heads immediately notified when issues are reported and are assigned to them.

Department Heads

Corrective Actions managed using email.

Documentation remains in one place.

Automated alerts and reports make jobs easier.

Trends identified highlighting where to save money and protect assets.

Internal & external auditors use customizable checklists to manage audit findings.

Auditor

Auditors able to review each item and leave remarks (Audit History) for authorized managers to review.

Auditors find all documentation in one place.

- Regulatory Agencies
- Existing Customers
- Prospective Customers

Then...

Safety Officer

$$

The Boss